LEGO®
“KYOTO STATION BUILDING MODEL”
Originally made to celebrate the 50th anniversary since the LEGO® brick’s arrival in Japan and the 15th anniversary of the Kyoto Station Building, this special LEGO® model was completed in 2012.

The LEGO Group based in Denmark was established in 1932 by the Ole Kirk Kristiansen. The first LEGO® set was sold in Japan in 1962 and soon became an essential item which has entertained Japanese children and people for over 50 years and helped nurture their creativity through playing.

Come and see this extraordinary one-of-a-kind Kyoto Station Building model now showcased at the East Square of the building.

June 1st SAT – 30th SUN
“Fashion Cantata from KYOTO” is a fascinating annual event in Kyoto during early summer (on June 8th this year). The event was started in 1992 to promote traditional cultures of Japan, particularly focusing on the fusion of Japanese and Western fashions from Kyoto. Famous fashion designers join the event and showcase their creativity. During the Fashion Cantata Week at the Kyoto Station Building, a variety of inspiring fashion related exhibitions and events will entertain you.
