KYOTO BIFU

Meet the Beauty of Japanese Garden in Kyoto

August 2nd (FRI) – 30th (FRI) 10:00-19:00

Kyoto is a home to over 2000 Buddhist temples and Shinto shrines. Gardens have been an indispensable element for religious compounds while courtyard gardens, or “Tsukuri-niwa,” are also essential in the traditional machiya townhouses. This month, KYOTO BIFU welcomes you to the world of Japanese gardens in Kyoto.

Panel Exhibitions
- A variety of Japanese garden styles
- Gardens in machiya townhouses
- Master gardeners and their works
- Tips to enjoy Japanese gardens
- Best 10 gardens in Kyoto recommended by a professional photographer

Graphical Illumination Plus on the Big Stairway

The artistic Graphical Illumination on the Big Stairway began in 2012 to celebrate the 15th anniversary of the Kyoto Station Building. The main stairway (125 steps) is illuminated with approx. 15,000 LED lights, set along with elegant music. Enjoy the artistic seasonal illuminations of Kyoto.

Illumination: 17:00-22:00
*Illumination time varies depending on the season.
*The illumination will not operate during special events.

Announcement

On August 16, with the opening of the Damonya Gozan Okuribi Send-off Fire ritual, the sky walk and the big sky square in the Kyoto Station Building will be closed from 19:00-20:30.

About KYOTO BIFU

Referring to a way of life fundamental to Kyoto culture and nurtured by the city’s artisans, the word “Bifu” can be translated to “lovely ways” or “beautiful customs.” The KYOTO BIFU exhibitions at Kyoto Station Building introduce “Bifu” in its various forms, both new and traditional. Particularly, they focus the works of artisans who embody this philosophy and, in turn, have come to represent the Kyoto way of life.
